

Cohesive Bandages

McKesson Cohesive Bandages are designed to hold dressings in place through consistent pressure. The self-adhesive material minimally restricts circulation. It conforms smoothly to the body's natural contours while maintaining its original size. McKesson Cohesive Bandages offer light compression for delicate or traumatized skin and provide soft tissue support for minor strains and sprains. They are available in various sizes and colors to assist medical staff in administering general wound care.

Features and Benefits

- Self-adhesive and easy to remove to eliminate the need for fasteners or clips
- Available in various options such as sterile, non-sterile, latex and latex-free
- Ideal for compression to help staunch bleeding and for support to affix IVs
- Consistent pressure for minimal effect on circulation
